Through various programming and fundraising activities DAGA has been an agent of support and positive change for the entire community which has impacted individuals of all abilities.

• In 1990, the City of Miami implemented the Persons with Disabilities Programs for inaugural Edward James Olmos Golf Classic. (later renamed) the City of Miami Golf Classic, participated (and won the first year) in the Springs Country Club.

• In 1991, DAGA began working directly with Special Olympics to bring golf to individuals with developmental disabilities. Annually, it hosts 2,916 athletes with disabilities throughout Miami Dade County.

• In 1994, DAGA spearheaded the operations of the Golf Tournament, organizing, fundraising, logistics and bringing it to the next level with its expertise and resources.

• In 2001, the City of Miami inaugurated the Sandra DeLucca Developmental Center (SDDC) which is the home of the Parks Disabilities Division and first facility of its kind in the city exclusively dedicated to helping individuals with developmental disabilities.

• In 2015, the Golf Classic celebrated 25 years of fundraising success with over $1,000,000 being raised towards providing quality programming and services to all the individuals with developmental disabilities of the Center.

• In 2017, the fundraising goal for the 27th Annual Golf Classic is to help raise money for the GET Fit Softball Team to go back to the Special Olympics National Games and represent Florida once again in Seattle, WA. In addition, to finish the remodeling of the newly expanded SDDC.
